MEDICINAL.

It's Impure Blood.

"What is it?" asks the mother as she notices the smooth skin of her child marred by a red or pimply eruption. It is impure blood, and the child needs at once to begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best and surest remedy for impurity of the blood. It cures scrofula, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which corrupt the blood and cause disease. It cures scrofula, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which corrupt the blood and cause disease. It cures scrofula, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which corrupt the blood and cause disease.

"Dr. Pierce's medicine has not only benefited me greatly, but it has done wonders for my two sons," writes Mrs. M. Hartwick of Demeter, Oswego Co., N. Y. "Both had scrofula. I have lost two daughters in less than five years with consumption and scrofula. My eldest son was taken two or three years ago with hemorrhage from the lungs. It troubled him for over a year. He took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and has not had a hemorrhage since. My younger son had scrofula sores on his neck; had two abscesses, but has not had any since he commenced to take your medicine."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs. A 100-page book, free for the asking. You can get the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, the best medical book ever published, free by sending stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covers or 31 stamps for cloth-bound volume, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

INSURRECTION SPREADING.

When the Bulgarian bands entered Krushevo they occupied the Greek quarter, hoisting their flag over a Greek house. The Turkish troops arrived August 12. All the Komitadjis had already gone, except about 400 local men. Although no shot was fired from the town the Turks began a bombardment, which was continued throughout August 13. The shells destroyed 360 houses, 215 shops and the Greek church and school. The Bulgarian quarter escaped. The Turks entered the town August 14, pillaged all the houses, assaulted many of the women, stripped many persons naked and killed about 300 local Bulgarians, and also some 60 innocent Greeks and Vlachos. About 8,000 people are homeless and starving. The material damage done amounts to several million francs. The Turks, August 19, massacred 200 Bulgarians who surrendered at a village near Monastir. All the dispatches received indicate that the revolution in Macedonia is spreading. The situation is causing intense anxiety in official circles. The most alarming news relates to an outbreak covering a considerable area in the eastern part of the Adrianople vilayet, where the insurgents have captured the town of Vasiliko.

The insurgents burned the villages behind Vasiliko and attacked a Turkish military post at the monastery of Elijah, south of Timovo. The strength of the insurgents is unknown. The peculiar danger of the latest outbreak lies in its proximity to the Bulgarian frontier, thus creating a situation long foreseen and dreaded by the Sofia government. The Turks are now certain to send a considerable force to this territory to suppress the outbreak, which will necessitate the strengthening of the Bulgarian frontier. With the two armies close to each other under the present strained relations, the situation becomes extremely delicate. The Bulgarian government is taking every possible step to prevent a calamity, but the officials express the greatest concern. In addition to the dangers of a collision between the military forces, there is no smaller one of popular excitement getting beyond control and forcing the government to adopt a belligerent attitude. Meanwhile the country remains quiet, even the Macedonian part of the population showing no particular anxiety or enthusiasm.

The insurgents completely burned Vasiliko and also 12 villages in the neighborhood. Severe fighting is reported near Ghegle, with heavy losses on both sides. The Sofia Duvnjak declares that all the Turkish vilayets in Macedonia will be in full revolt August 28, and that the revolution is spreading from Salonica into the districts toward Seres. Several new bands have appeared in the district of Voden, southeast from Monastir. A general panic prevails in the vilayet of Uskup, where the inhabitants are hiding their property. At Kratovo half of the Turkish garrison has deserted, the men saying that they had enough to do at home.

The Macedonian revolutionary organizations are preparing heavy armaments on the rich Macedonian residents in Bulgaria. They have drawn up a complete list of names with the amounts to be demanded against each. It is believed in many quarters that the insurrection is encouraged by Russians. The rebels accept the naval demonstration as a support of their cause.

MILLER DENIES CHARGES.

William A. Miller, assistant foreman of the bindery of the government printing office, in Washington, against whom charges have been filed by the local Bookbinders' Union and against whom fresh charges have been made accusing him of bigamy, does not intend to pay any attention to the last charges, and in speaking about the matter yesterday said: "I shall take no notice of these last charges. They are the result of conspiracy to get me out of the government printing office. The union made two attempts to have me discharged and failed in both. A majority of their charges are based on hearsay, and for that reason I do not intend to answer them. As for my being a bigamist, that is not true. I married my first wife in 1871. Two years later we separated. In 1875 I was at my mother's home in Pottsville, Pa. When I was convalescent my wife went into court and asked for alimony. She got only $15. In 1882, the year before my second marriage, I had a letter from my first wife saying she had an offer of marriage and asking what I thought about it. I took it for granted she had secured a divorce, and wrote her it would be a very good thing for her to marry if she wished. A year later, believing I was divorced, I married my present wife. As to the Alexandria matter, in which I am accused of marrying a girl there in 1888, I can say that I was in the west that year, and if there is any record of such a marriage in Alexandria, I have no knowledge of it. Whatever my relations were with the girl referred to, she and her family had full knowledge that I was married. I do not care to say anything about this myself, but I have a wife and three children living in Minnesota, and it is on their account that I fell bitter toward my persecutors. My wife and I are on the best of terms, and always have been. I understand, also, that my first wife is very happily married. As to my holding my position in the government printing office, it gives me no worry at all. My record as a workman and as a good servant of the government is of the highest order, and I do not believe these scurrilous charges will affect my position."

MURDERED BY INSANE PREACHER.—Rev. Philip Hughes, a colored Baptist preacher, residing near Campbell's station 14 miles east of Charlottesville, became suddenly insane Thursday night, and going to the home of his stepmother, Ellen Hughes, battered down the door and killed the aged woman with an axe. An uncle, Burrill Hughes, escaped death by taking to the woods. The preacher then proceeded to a neighbor's and broke every window of the dwelling. A posse of 15 men organized and captured the man before further damage had been done. Yesterday afternoon Hughes was examined before a commission, adjudged to be insane and taken to Charlottesville last night and lodged in jail.
